Website Analytics

This website uses “Cookies” to collect information from you. Cookies have become an industry standard and are utilized by the majority of websites today. Cookies produce a small text file that is saved on your computer to remember your preferences when using the website. It is possible to change how cookies are handled by changing the settings of your browser. While you are able to disable cookies for this website please note that it may prevent full functionality.

We use the following analytic programs to collect data for the purposes of learning the demographics of users to the website. Google Analytics, Facebook Pixel, and WordPress JetPack are in use so that we can learn more about our userbase. Your data will not be used to associate your IP with any other data collected. It is merely in place for us to better understand our traffic and usage data.

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline.

Wherever we collect sensitive information (such as credit card data), that information is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a lock icon in the address bar and looking for "https" at the beginning of the address of the Web page.

While we use encryption to protect sensitive information transmitted online, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job (for example, billing or customer service) are granted access to personally identifiable information. The computers/servers in which we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.

If you feel that we are not abiding by this privacy policy, you should contact us immediately via telephone at 724-572-6244 or eric@ericminermedia.com.
